I am a 31 yr old wife and mom of 4 littles (ages 6, 4, 2 and 2 mos). We just began our first year of official homeschooling and this seems to be working for us.

It matters, I'm sure that we use a very flexible curriculum so that I don't have to be 5 different people at one time....so, yes, we're all in there together at the same time!

This is a copy of my schedule layout. I typically print it out Sunday night and fill in the spaces from my to-do list for that week. This is my summer schedule though, it totally changes for the school year, being that I am still in school (I am entering my senior year).
